1. What does "Always Be Deciding" mean in leadership at scale?
2. What are "blinders" in the context of team decision-making?
3. Name the three steps for making decisions on ambiguous problems.
4. How does the airplane parable illustrate decision-making trade-offs?
5. Why should leaders frame decisions as iterative rather than final?